

FileXpress Quickstart Offering

The fastest way to launch your new file transfer solution

Today your file transfer solution must handle more files, bigger files, and files traveling to faraway places. It must comply with new, more stringent security regulations. And it must do all these things without draining your IT resources.

That's why we offer FileXpress® Quickstart: To help you get Attachmate® FileXpress – your new managed file transfer solution – up and running as quickly as possible.

Two FileXpress Quickstart Offerings

1. FileXpress Quickstart

This package consists of three days of FileXpress consulting services for FileXpress Internet Server. During the three days, an Attachmate specialist will:

- Analyze your file transfer business requirements, workflows, and dependencies.
- Configure and install FileXpress Internet Server.
- Set up file transfer and server definitions.
- Transfer knowledge about daily FileXpress routines.

2. FileXpress Quickstart Plus

This package includes all the services that come with FileXpress Quickstart, plus our Consultant-on-Demand (CoD) service. CoD is Attachmate's most flexible and economical remote service offering. You decide which services you want our specialists to cover. CoD for FileXpress may consist of, but is not limited to, services for:

- FileXpress Internet Server
- FileXpress Platform Server
- FileXpress Fileshot
- FileXpress Scripting
- Backend, Frontend and API consulting
- Additional knowledge transfer

About FileXpress Internet Server

FileXpress Internet Server is part of the Attachmate FileXpress family of managed file transfer solutions – all designed to provide visible, secure, and manageable file transfers across multiple platforms.

FileXpress Internet Server is the portal through which all Internet-traveling files flow. Built to support the latest web and security technologies, it lets you safely interact with partners and customers around the globe. With FileXpress Internet Server, you can:

- Make files available to partners and customers.
- Allow partners and customers to upload files to your internal servers.
- Brand your own file transfer web page, where users can pick up and drop off files.
- Seamlessly move files from outside your corporate network, through the DMZ, to internal target servers.
- Delegate administrative and account management tasks to partners and helpdesk personnel.
- Support the file transfer protocols required by your partners, including HTTPS, FTP, FTPS, SFTP, PGP over FTP, and AS2.

Pricing Information

We offer a discounted price for our FileXpress Quickstart services – 15 percent off of our traditional consulting rates. For our Consultant-on-Demand service, which is included with Quickstart Plus at a minimum of two units, the value is 10 hours for the price of 8.

Please contact your Professional Services Engagement Manager for more detailed pricing information.

Attachmate Professional Services

The Attachmate Professional Services team brings extensive knowledge to your file transfer modernization projects.

Our specialists will assist you in every phase – from analyzing your file transfer needs and requirements to installing and configuring the necessary components. Their job isn't done until your team members are comfortable handling the technology on a daily basis.
